All issues regarding fraternity insignia will be under the control of Grand Council. The use of the official seal will be restricted to use on official documents.

Section 1. Coat of Arms

The official coat of arms will conform to the established design. It will appear on the charter, membership certificate, and plaques. It may be used on official publications, stationery, jewelry, fraternal composites, and other articles authorized by Grand Council.

Section 2. Jewelry

- (a) Badge: the official badge will be cut from yellow gold to form the Greek letters Kappa and Epsilon. The Kappa may be jeweled in pearls and may also have rubies. Collegiate, allied health science affiliate, alumni, professional, and alumni affiliate members may wear the badge. It must be purchased from the official jeweler.
- (b) Pledge Pin: the pledge pin will be a black enamel diamond-shaped pin, superimposed with a gold mortar and pestle engraved with the Greek letters Kappa and Epsilon. It will belong to the collegiate chapter and be loaned to the prospective member until initiation. Upon initiation, a member may purchase the pin, return it to the chapter, or the chapter may give the pin to the member as a gift. To distinguish fully initiated collegiate or allied health science affiliate members from prospective members; the pledge pin may be worn only by an initiated collegiate or allied health science affiliate member when accompanied by the official badge. Alumni or alumni affiliate members may wear the pledge pin alone except when attending any Kappa Epsilon function, where at such time both the official badge and the pledge pin should be worn together.
- (c) Advisor Pin: the advisor pin may be worn by a collegiate chapter advisor.
- (d) Associate Member Pin: the associate member pin may be worn by an associate member.
- (e) Guard Pin: the guard pin displaying a mortar and pestle, or the appropriate Greek letter(s), may be worn with the official badge allowing for display of officer dangles.
- (f) Monogram Recognition Pin: the monogram recognition pin may be worn on the lapel of an alumnus, professional, or alumnus affiliate member.
- (g) Rx Pin: the Rx pin may be worn by any member, including pre-pharmacy affiliate and honorary members.
